On motion of San't Rocas, of R., the following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That wa, the representatives of the Democracy of Montgomery county, do most gordaily endorse the amination of Jong Cl. Bracking and Gen. Joseph Laus of Gregon, for Vice-President, of the United States, and declare that the principles they represent are such only as will maintain the equality of the States under the Union.

The Hyattstown Brass Band's Pic Nic.

HEATTSTOWN, Aug. 4th, 1860. Ms. Eurons: Permit me to treppass upon your columns, by giving you a cursory description of the Pic Nic, held in the Grove at "Crawford's Mill," near this place, by the Hyattatown Brass Band, on the 2d instant, which, while it will afford great satisfaction to friends at a distance who could not be present, may not prove altorether uninterest-

In friends at a distance who could not be present, may not prove altogether uninteresting to the general reader.

According to previous publid notice, the Hyattatown Brass lland mate in the Grove selected, at the appointed hour, together with a large concourse of people, variously estimated at from 400 to 500 persons, all intent unin enjoying themely the triangle of the condition of the conditi almity of sentiment, and so perfect good humous prevailed, that harmony and good order reigned supreme—not a laingle incident occurring during the entire day to mar the pleasure of any one. A suitable "model" for others to limitate.

pleasure of any one. A suitable "model" for others to imitate.

The day was most propritious; the sun arose in all his glory, and "after divesting himself of his morning wrapper of mist," stood forth, as bereally is, "Goo of Ibay." A fine breeze apringing up, tempered his rave, and rendered the day pleasant and agreenble. At an early hout, the rillage was all agog—the occasional tap of the drum, blast of the horn, hurrying to and fro of wagons, horsemen, and pedestrians—all indicated that semething more than an ordinary occurrence was at hand. A continuous living stream pouring along the road for some time, (from the village to the grove, reminded ond of a seene on a Sunday, somerie Lamp Ground—the road became very dusty and of course disagreeable.

At the firster, it presented an animated appearance. A large number of ladies were present, who graced, the occasion with approving smiles. The farmer left his plough, the mechanic his implements, the merchanic his business, and set apart a day for mutual anjoyment. How appropriate, after the laborious in gathering of a bountiful harvest, to lay aside the occupations of life, and devote a day of ritional pleasure to revive the enervated soulding of files and allow of soul."

"Fear of reason and a flow of soul."

About half an acre was inclosed by a double row of fence, extending around it—the one line about ten feet from the dither. Two stands were erreited within the enclosure—one large to actonimodate the Brays Band, the other the Cotillion. A floor eighty, feet long by twenty wide, severel a good purpose for dancing. The Band deserves great credit for their sagacity displayed in the salection of so beautiful a place, urbanity to their guests, and choice music to all.
